Customer Reviews

this book should be awarded for the most creative one! this is a start of a great series written by kawaii chan! kids who have read the fart warrior and the diary of a minecraft zombie series will love this series! Just like the fart warrior series and contains appropriate content, this book is ready to roll!

Starting from the first of the series to Kawaii - Girl 3. This is our favorite so far. The whole series is excellent and the author definitely has an imagination that just entices my grandkids to want me to read it over again and again. Great illustrations and another solid storyline!!! 5 Stars for sure! THANKS A MILLION!!! Keep up the great work!

This writer has thoughtfully integrated all the elements needed to keep a child interested, as well as some great humour and a psychological moral between the lines. I found this to be a very a clean and uncorrupted story book for young children, you can trust this one it won't scramble their brains.

As good as it gets, from series of events that happens in every kid's life to the series of events that are imaginary or fantasy type but really interesting because of excellent narration. Description of things like strange creatures and black hole are breathtaking and worth reading.

Humor, mystery and fastpaced story line is not easy - especially when the audience are teens. But this book manages to make it fun while keeping the young reader eager to turn the page. The mystery is hooking, the humor is fresh and the pace is just right for the young readers.

This is an amazing and a nail biting edition. I loved how the mystery and suspense unfolds in the book. It has a good storyline backed up with new creatures. Overall, a good read for all.

Indeed this is such a brilliant purchase as a continuation to the kid's party in book 2. Falling into a dark hole opens up a series of new adventures for this Kawaii Girl, so to say!

The third part is as good as the earlier 2 parts. I think this story will get better and more better with other parts. I am just waiting for more parts to read. I love this book.
