have used the award-winning 1-2-3 Magic program to help their children develop emotional intelligence, raise healthier, happier families, and put the fun back into parenting. Along with other

"Phelan's method has a proven track record of ending the negotiations and getting kids back on track...1-2-3 is the gold standard of child discipline for good reason." - Library

Journal-STARRED"The most valuable advice I got from reading 1-2-3 Magic that you can start implementing at home immediately is to avoid too much talking and too much emotion...the 1-2-3-program is as much a control on parental anger as it is on children's behavior." - Outnumbered 3 to 1 "The book has a lot of great, helpful information. Anyone who has children, no matter what age, can learn from this." - Cassandra's Place"1-2-3 Magic helped me quickly identify the areas that I was messing up with my kids, and showed me how I could change those bad habits and trade them in for solid tactics to use when my kids were not listening as they should be. The best part, is that it literally only took a couple days for my kids to completely jump on board with the program...This book is worth it's weight in gold and will change your family's life." - The Simple Moms"If you are a parent of young kids I do recommend that you pick up this book for a read as it would help you understand more about how to cope with your children during their outbursts." - Dominique's Desk"Lays out a simple program for parents to help manage, and keep from overreacting, to behavior that seems incessant and annoying, like a continual request for junk food right before dinner." - Tri-City Herald"Since the sixth edition of the self-proclaimed No. 1 child-discipline book in America came out last year, Dr. Phelan's strategies have seen a resurgence in the parenting world. Maybe that's why you feel like everywhere you go, you keep overhearing other moms say to their misbehaving children, "That's one. That's two. That's three." And then you watch in disbelief as their kid actually stops! " - PopSugar

This method works. But if you can't get your partner to buy into using the method correctly you will quickly become the bad cop with your kid and a little bit of the connection with the kid is lost. I am waiting to see if the kid will thank me later for actually being the bad cop all the time. Kid's behavior has improved and knows what is coming when the count starts and does the timeout physically without fuss even though still a bit of verbal/noise before extensions periods warnings are given.

Book has changed our life! Our kids barely get to #2, as soon as we say "that's ONE" the behaviors we don't want are quickly stopped. Highly recommend to all new moms. - Mom to 2 & 3yr olds Great book. Love how it is simple explains it in plain and simple terms. It has helped me manage my daughter a lot and helped with boundaries and learning to rationalize. I highly recommend it.

No more screaming. Yeah! I would recommend listening in your car. Each parent should listen to it. We are grandparents. We listened to it on the way to Florida. You have to stick to it. You as the parent have to stop being a big whiny baby and grow up. If you want a happier family this will help.

Love it, I'm a mental health counselor and use the tenants of this book all the time, Workbook helps with assigned homework for parents.

This book should be mandatory reading for all parents. It teaches parents and care givers to hold themselves accountable for follow through and it teaches children natural consequences and readies them for the realities of the real world. It works great for children with challenges such as ADHD.

Will stand behind this book 100%. It's made a world of a difference with our strong willed little girl. And the technique is so simple! It's easy to implement at home, at grandparents and while out and about. Highly recommend this book for all parents of young children. It's a quick and easy read with funny examples and real life scenarios.

Encouraged is not the word for this amazing book! We took the suggestions and employed them as directed and 1-2-3 Magic! Our household is already more calm and respectful and we, as parents, have learned more about ourselves than what we thought was originating from our children. It is a God-send and we are going to buy more copies and give to our friends when they ask us about our family peace. :)
