View larger From the Introduction This book profiles many women who paved the way for us-- women like Katherine Johnson, Louise Bourgeois, Julia Child, and others who were challenging notions of what it meant to be an 'over-the-hill' woman long before today. The book also tells stories of extraordinary women today who are reinventing what it means to be an older woman-- women who are breaking barriers, successfully completing athletic feats, and doing their best work in their 60s, 70s, and 80s. No matter what your age or gender, may each of you find inspiration in this book to live bravely and fully, and to use your experience as your most powerful tool in living your best life.
