David Woodroffe is a professional illustrator and paper engineer. He illustrates anything and everything and in a long career has worked on advertising campaigns, magazines and comics as well as academic books and children's picture books. His book credits include The Complete Paper Aviator and The Complete Book of Origami Animals. Chris Bell has been a designer and illustrator for over 30 years and has worked on a wide range of publications for both children and adults. She loves conjuring up and solving puzzles and enjoys creating artworks for them. She does dot-to-dots in her leisure time to stay mindful.

I have to admit I'm a little disappointed. For one, the pages are double sided which makes it hard if I wanted to color any of the finished puzzles. Also, I prefer the puzzle to be all dots. Some of them have pre-drawn lines which I think defeats the purpose. Other than that, there are plenty of puzzles to keep me busy & I'm looking forward to seeing the results

Fun, relaxing, intricate Some require a straight edge, but mostly hands on Love these Dot-To-Dot books by David Woodroffe. The numbers are easy to see. A lot of others are hard to see and don't go in order.

I've enjoyed every book in this author's collection. Some of the images are duplicates from earlier books, but I don't mind too much, since it seems like a fresh chance to create the image.

Really nice book of fun

AAA+

Perfect!

Love it
