I really like this book, very well done and high quality, although a vintage book, well packed content and thorough. I actually bought it for genealogy purposes, to learn about the area, and realized it was not the area I wanted, lol. But, it was so interesting, I read it anyway. One of the better books of its type. I am very impressed with it. I think the photos and images, etc. are mostly in black and white, but does not diminish the quality of the photographs. Since I am a photographer myself, I am very picky about this kind of thing, and the materials a book is made out of. For the price, esp. it was well worth it and a book I will keep in my private library. Bravo!

I am a published author and recently started a novel set in Wales in 1400 A.D., a pivotal year. This atlas gave me more than I could ever have hoped for! It shows how the boundaries changed during a time of great upheaval. Chock full of maps, but also narrative. It put everything I needed in one nice, compact package.
