Customer Reviews

Exactly as described.

This book is all about smoking fish and seafood. The title cites 25 fish recipes in the book. There are 25 recipes, not all of them are fish recipes. TOP 2 THINGS I LIKED I like the personalize introduction of why the author likes outdoor cooking The recipes used ingredients that I can easily find at my grocer ANY SPECIAL FEATURES No special features noted THINGS THAT COULD BE DONE BETTER There is no working table of contents, just blue underlined text that appear to be hyperlinks A good number of typos, the book does need a good deal more editing and tightening up of the sentences. Some sentences are just too darned wordy There are many inconsistencies through the book, for example, the Introduction uses both variations of "barbecue" and "barbeque" The recipes cycle between the word cup and the abbreviation c. The recipes cycle between citing temperatures, for example "200 degrees" in recipe 8 and 100 F in recipe 15 There is no real need to abbreviate hr for hour and min for minutes when documenting the preparation times, the text in the recipes does spell the entire word SUMMARY Outside of the formatting errors, differing font sizes, the typos, and inconsistent terminology, the book does give the reader a few interesting seafood recipes to try in the backyard smoker. I am a big fan of salmon on the grill or in the smoker. Recipe 4 is one that is on my list to try some weekend. Recipe 5 also looks like a winner. I picked up my copy of this book when it was offered at no cost, a kindle free day

Good overview

This is very helpful recipe collection for preparing fish over the flame. To my mind, the book is aimed both at beginners and more experienced smokers. There are plenty of useful foods such as Cajun catfish, Sea bass, Crab legs, Scallops, and Oysters. I tried some and found them pretty good. So far they all were good and easy to cook.

really like smoking meat, but that is the first book about smoked fish that I found. And that was a right decision to grab it. I found here a lot of interesting recipes of smoked fish and that can be a good alternative to smoking meat on some days. A lot of different fishes, clear and easy-to-make directions and very good results!

This book is full of mouth-watering recipes! I do not eat meat, and there are not so many delicious recipes for smoked fish. Until I have this book! Now I look forward to when the warmer days come and we will cook the fish in the fresh air in our yard.

Wouldn't hesitate to buy again. Amazing for the price, quality, and usability. Handy little device. Works great, no problems so far great product, exceptional customer service Brilliant device!

Not written very well. Some good recipes. Temp and times are the most important thing and they are spelled out.
