Customer Reviews

This is a good read. A mystery without a body! It is really refreshing to have a mystery that doesn't involve dead bodies or national security type problems. I love that the mystery is who is vandalizing the neighborhood. I'm really looking forward to the next installment of Carlitta and Mercedes lives!

I really like the books in this series. Carlita is a spunky widow, who, for the first time in her life, is in charge of her future. Meredith, the daughter, is also trying her wings for the first time. Looking forward to book 4 to see what is next for these two ladies.

Fun read for any time you don't want to get bogged down in our reading but just have a good fun read.

Carlita Garlucci, after her husband Vinnie died, moved to Savannah, GA to get away from the mob in NYC. With her daughter Mercedes and her dog Rambo they to check out a inheritance property, planning to open a Pawn Shop and restruant after renovation the buildings and getting a licence to open the Pawn Shop. That's when the vandalism started, her & her daughter try to solve who is behind this!

I've enjoyed all 4 books. They are EASY to read and keep my attention. They are just good clean stories with a little mystery. Sometime you just want to read something light.

Lots of twists and turns great characters

I like how the Mom got herself together and her and her daughter packed up and moved south to get away from the mob life and start over. they are able to get life started in another state and start over. they run in some problems but are able to work them out. Cant wait for the next book.
