This was a remarkably detailed map which served us well. Other reviewers had mentioned how large it is, and that is true. It is difficult to unfold and then refold to the particular area you are driving in the front seat of our rented Citroen. Nonetheless, with a little planning, like unfolding it in the hotel room on the floor, then folding it up to a manageable size for use in the car the paper holds together well, doesn't tear easily and is then manageable. My only regret is I failed to retrieve it from the car when we turned it in to the rental agency.

This map of Normandy was exactly what I wanted. I am reading a book about the D-Day Normandy invasion and I wanted a map to track the movement of the battle. This map is detailed enough to accomplish this task.

this map unfolded is 4 feet by 4 feet, that's 16 square feet. Almost impossible to use in a car or on a tour bus. I'm sure the map is a very fine map, however I will be leaving this one at home when I take my trip to Normandy.

I travel with a navigator, its great, type in the location hit go and it takes me there, but, I never leave home without a paper map. Over the years I've purchased all brands of maps, the Michelin Map series are one of the best available at any price. This particular map was wonderful for laying our travel route.

Just returned from two weeks and 1,200 driving miles in Normandy. You can't get lost with this map! Large, but fold it to what you need. Tough enough to take refolding over and over. Anticipate tolls, detours, and practically every bump in the road!

Very Comprehensive map. Large size, but able to fold and see certain areas. Size worked because we were in a rental car. Showed every possible area we wanted to go through.

This covers all of Normandy and is very thorough. It would be nice to have more than one map dedicated to the areas of Normandy such as the D-day beaches and towns along the coast.

Plenty of detail, would have to pre-fold before a day's journey.
