CIVIL WAR CIVILIAN LIFE: MANASSAS, VIRGINIA (Battle Of Bull Run)

Synopsis

A brief look at the impact of war on civilians living around Manassas based on first person narratives and family histories. During the four years of the Civil War, twenty six major battles and four hundred smaller engagements were fought in Virginia. Two of the Civil War's great battles, First and Second Manassas (Bull Run) were fought in Northern Virginia. Few stop to think about the impact these battles had on civilians living in the area.
