Customer Reviews

Used this book to plan for a short visit to Old Montreal in July 2012, and for a return visit in October. It’s restaurant and hotel descriptions seemed very accurate. I especially appreciated the walking tour for Old Montreal and descriptions of the various sites there.

Fodor’s has everything you need to know about Montreal and then some. There are maps with the Metro stops and the quartiers and many recommendations for eating and shopping and sight-seeing. Montreal is a fantastic city and Fodor’s shows it at its best.

Fodor's only hires local writers to do their guides and it shows. This is an excellent resource, full of good tips, pretty pictures, and imaginative writing.

My husband and I are planning a trip to Montreal this year. So this is exactly what we needed to begin the planning. We have always had good luck with Fodor's and look forward to using this to guide us to a fun vacation.

The book was ok. The fault was mine in not realizing 2012 businesses were not always still in business in 2014.

We visited Montreal in August for the first time. This book was a great reference guide. We always go to Fodors for travel information.

Great resource for my trip.

This was one of the travel books that we used when we visited Montreal recently. It's details are good, and the comparison of the city's sections will help you choose a hotel. For more travel tips about Montreal, search "hubpages goldenrulecomics montreal" on the Internet and look at my articles.
