Customer Reviews

Bert and Jane Gildart are veteran outdoors writers, photographers, and hikers, and the authors of several FalconGuides, including Hiking Shenandoah National Park.

I used this book to hike two trails this last weekend and it was very helpful for me (1st time to Shenandoah). The pocket size was awesome to bring along on the hikes. Its very light. I also used it to pick which day hikes I wanted to do. I used it a couple times during the hikes to read the descriptions and make sure I was still going the right way as many different trails intercross as some point. The GPS coordinates also helped for us to arrive at the parking areas, especially for Whiteoak Canyon Trail that has an entrance not off of skyland drive and we had no cel phone service. I'd definitely recommend this book. It would make a great stocking stuffer around Christmas time.

excellent handbook that depicts 27 trails that details GPS, length of trail, hiking time, difficulty, and elevations.

Very nice guide, great book to use for planning hikes. Will always carry in my pack. Recommend to everyone.

I first borrowed this book from a local library, now I am going to order one. This is a fantastic hiking guide. It is small and light enough (only about 100 pages and the dimension is about 4"x7") to carry in a backpack and not have to feel the weight. It is concise and extremely helpful. The trails are organized by mile post marks and there is a list of all trails in order of difficulty. The description of each hike gives the total mileage of the trail, highlights and landmarks along the trail and a map. Now my goal for the next couple of years is to complete all the trails covered in this book, and I am sure it will be indispensable!

good product

Fabulous and concise little book!

Super fast service! Product as described. Thank you!

This book has a lot of detail, telling you exactly where to pick up the trail, trail markers to look for, which ways to turn, etc. I also appreciated the descriptions of each hike. We only had a few days in the area and wanted to make the most of our time there. For a non-seasoned hiker, I found it very helpful.
