Mirror, Black Mirror

Synopsis

New work chronicling the prolific and life-changing time period of 2007-2011, when Garcia fled LA and moved to a cabin in the Northern California woods. The natural world inspires this work: her themes are disenchantment with modernity and the problems of becoming too removed from the natural world. Her layered, broken narrative paintings of wasteland fairy tales are influenced by William Burroughs's cut-up writings and surrealist film, as well as vintage Disney and Fleischer cartoons, acting as critical commentaries on the failure. This work is from shows in New York, Berlin, and Los Angeles, Escape to Darlingtonia (2007) The Grand Illusion (Berlin, 2008) Ambien Somnambulants, (New York, 2008), The Hydra of Babylon, (LA, 2009), and Snow White and the Black Lagoon (LA, 2011).

Her work has been displayed internationally and in numerous magazines including Juxtapoz, Rolling Stone, and Modern Painter, and is included in the collections of the LACMA, The Resnick Collection and the San Jose Modern Museum of Art. Her book, The Illustrated Alice in Wonderland (Harper Collins) was a NYT Bestseller.

a gift for a friend whos a big fan of this artist. I didn't remove the plastic seal on the outside because i wanted to keep it as pristine as possible until they get it, but the book's outside is extremely detailed and very high quality. Its a good size book hard cover with intense eye-catching colors and imagery that will definitely look intriguing on a coffee table. arrived very quickly even without prime, but thats likely due to the fact it shipped from the same state i live in. im 400% sure my friend is going to sh*t themselves in delight when they open this.

Incredible art, love the book!
