Wanderings Among South Sea Savages And In Borneo And The Philippines

Synopsis

The "Buli" was greeted with cries of "m-m-ka-a" in shrill voices by the women, for all the world like the caw of an old crow. I learned that the "Buli" had not been here for some time, but I seemed to be the chief object of interest, and was followed everywhere by an admiring and curious crowd of dark brown, shiny boys and girls, the former just as they were born and the latter wearing a strip of "Sulu."

A look into the past so wonderfully and interestingly written. My husband & I read the book together and we both enjoyed it & laughed about it . I highly recommend this book to people who are interested in other cultures & ways of life. One thing negative I have to say is that the book was missing the plates & photographs in the ebook form.
