Rock Point Gifts & Stationery: Innovative Gifts for Stylish, Passionate, and Creative Lives

I am a little disappointed in the Pop of Color Colored Pencils. It's more like a Hint of Color, and then you have to blend, and blend and blend, and the paper never fully gets covered with color. They also feel very waxy. They also don't identify the colors, except for a small colored dot at the end of the pencil. I like to make color charts, in order to identify my colors and shades of colors. I did this with Pop of Color and there is no name, no ID number, just that small confusing dot on the end. On the "plus" side, they come in a beautiful "keepsake" box. Sorry Rock Point, better luck with your other products.

I returned my Pop of Color Pencil Set. The color is very dull. Even with firm pressure the best I could get was pale.

Nice, but was expecting them to be richer in-depth of color.

Seem like nice true colors. Like triangle shape, easy on fingers.

Fast shipper, product as described, bought for my son who loves the colors.

This was a gift, so I haven't used them, but they looked solid and very nice. No regrets.

Premier Soft Core Colored pencil set don't require much pressure to get their softer pigment out on the page, so you can create delicate, smoothly blended and shaded works . I highly recommend this Color Pencil Set. I was given this set from Quarto Knows for an honest review.
