Boy Afloat: Kayaking Solo Around Prince Edward Island

Synopsis

There are big adventures and small adventures. There are big books and small books. This tale is small on both counts. This is in no way to belittle the accomplishment of circumnavigating Prince Edward Island alone by kayak and then of relating the adventure in an entertaining read. To plan, set out, complete and record a long-held dream is to grow yourself and inspire others. So, journey with Joseph as he paddles, explores, muses and capsizes his way around Canada's smallest province and perhaps be nudged toward little adventures of your own.

Customer Reviews

Joseph Simmonds has not written a New York Times Bestseller. He has not won any prestigious writing awards. He has not yet gained international renown and he sometimes forgets how to spell cantaloupe. At the age of sixteen, he paddled his kayak around Canada's smallest province and in the process gathered the material needed to write his first book.
