Sudan & Uganda: A Travel Diary

Synopsis

You have here the journal that I, an American, wrote while traveling in Africa with my Norwegian wife. Neither of us had been on the continent before. We visited Uganda, in a sort of "tourist heaven" safari, using the TUSC "one of the top companies. We had a fabulous time, and you can read all about it: savanna wildlife in the Semliki Valley, chimpanzees and tons more in the Queen Elizabeth National Park, and mountain gorillas in the Bwindi Impenetrable Forest, close to the Congo. Then we shifted gears a lot "traveling to the Sudan, Uganda's neighbor to the north. Sudan is by no means thought of as a tourist magnet! But it was not at all "tourist hell" "we visited the large, extended family, in the Nuba Mountains of South Kordofan, of our Sudanese friends Elnour and Awadiya; and we were treated so very well that I would also call it "heaven" here "just a very different flavor from that of Uganda! The journal is personal, but (I trust) not too much so. I have truly enjoyed remembering the many rich experiences we had during those four weeks, and hope that you will enjoy reading about them.
