Amy-Jo Girardier is the Girls Minister at Brentwood Baptist in Brentwood, TN. She has been serving in this role for 11 years and still can't believe this is what she gets to do for a job! Originally from Springfield, Illinois, Amy-Jo graduated from Southwest Baptist University and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary to pursue a Masters in Christian Education. She is the founding editor of girlsminister.com, a website created to connect and resource girls ministers, moms, and youth workers engaged in the girls ministry conversation. Amy-Jo is a contributor to youthministry360.com, and faithvillage.com. In addition to ministry, Amy-Jo loves using technology, passing on her love of technology to others, drinking coffee, running, serving with her husband Darrel, loving on her son Scout, and chill-axing with her Boston Terrier Diesel.

Amy-Jo Thank you! This was a wonderful study which I did with a handful of about 7 teen girls (my own daughter and her friends) aged 13-14 over the summer. The girls enjoyed it and were able to get into it. It was a great springboard for excellent conversation and growth relationally and spiritually among the group. What a great way to introduce girls to Bible study and get them hooked for life on the amazing benefits of connecting with other girls to encourage each other and grow their faith.

I lead a high school Bible study and I'm looking forward to doing this study with them. It is not just a read and discuss book. It actually has the kids reading and interacting with the word of God.

Excellent study!!!! Love it

Great! It really helps me improve my faith!

Have about five sets now. Pretty good. the only brand to buy It meets my expectation. Not well made Waste on money and time
