As a mom and now new auntie I have read and enjoy my fair share of children's books. I bought this for my niece and the book is so weird. Even for a one year old who isn't getting the story line I couldn't stand reading it. Bought because with the cute little duck and goose on the cover how could you go wrong?! Sorry I purchased and ended up getting a different book to put in her basket instead.

This was our first Duck book purchase ... and not real thrilled over it. The book is sturdy and artwork is colorful, but story was lacking. With asking questions, pointing out pictures, and making up own story we were able to keep it interesting. Doubt it will be a book picked up often though. Sorry.

We bought this book for our son for his Easter basket this year. He loves all his other Duck and Goose books and this was no exception. I highly recommend it.

We love these books!! They are simple, with great illustrations. My 7 month old loves listening to them and I enjoy reading them. Of course, he doesn't get the humor in them, but he will someday soon! I'll be buying more Duck and Goose books for sure!

The book itself is a nice quality but the story is lacking. There's no real "story" - just a few words on each page - which made it very hard for my 2 year old to follow or understand. I was hoping this book would help him understand what was going on at Easter with the Easter Bunny but it was not helpful at all. If anything, I think it confused him even more!

Really cute easter book, colorful, non-religious so if that is what you are after it is great

Very short but my daughter loves duck and goose so she thought this was fun at Easter

Duck and Goose my grandsons fav booksMine too
