Zoologist Jim Kavanagh has made a career out of introducing novices to plants, animals, the sciences and world cultures. In addition to creating over 500 simplified nature guides, he has also authored guides to languages, cities and outdoor skills. An avid traveler and backpacker, Kavanagh's path has taken him around the world to many remote destinations including the upper , Africa, Australia, and the Arctic Circle (and this is just the As). He is also the author of a series of state-specific guides to common species and natural attractions and a children's book on evolution.

Love it, very informative!

I used this pamphlet when I went to South Dakota this summer. I used it for identification purposes and for spelling in my journal.

This laminated pocket guides is a perfect hiking companion. My kids and I love to use it to identify plants when we are out in the forest
