Tired of the same old tourist traps? Take the road less traveled and uncover the hidden attractions, unique finds, and unusual locales other guidebooks just don't offer. Off the Beaten Path® features the things you'd want to see if only you knew about them! From the best in local dining to quirky cultural tidbits, you'll say over and over again: "I didn't know that!" Discover a different side of the Treasure State. Take the Blackfoot Indians Going-to-the-Sun Tour at Glacier National Park; while away a day at the re-created mining town of Hell Roarin Gulch; or embrace your inner cowboy or cowgirl at the Range Riders Museum and Memory Hall. So if you've been there, done that one too many times, get off the main road and venture Off the Beaten Path.

Michael McCoy's outdoor and travel articles have appeared in national and regional publications. A former resident of Montana, he currently lives in Teton Valley, Idaho.

I like the comprehensive travel ideas for someone who is unfamiliar with Montana. The state is to large to include everything, but it's a good start
