Out East: Houses And Gardens Of The Hamptons

Synopsis

Cool breezes, miles of pristine beaches, and vast, open farmland have long attracted visitors to Long Island's South Fork, known worldwide as "The Hamptons." Residents in picturesque seaside communities from Southampton to Montauk are calling upon world-class designers to fine-tune their visions, giving rise to a fresh design vernacular: homes that are testaments to what can be achieved when inspired by the natural beauty of a unique locale—and when imagination is one's only limitation. Out East captures the enduring appeal of shingled houses, modernist oceanfront designs, artists' compounds, and Montauk surf shacks. Jennifer Ash Rudick, a long-time Southampton resident, leads an insider's tour of more than 25 houses, cottages, and pool houses. Tria Giovan, a Sag Harbor-based photographer, captures extraordinary gardens, verandas, lakeside pavilions, farmhouses, and converted barns.

Customer Reviews

"Despite the bold-faced names who have made their mark, a surprising thread of rusticity and relaxation runs through many of the Hamptons's most appealing properties—which is precisely what makes the collection presented in the book so intriguing." (VOGUE.com)"Few summer retreats are as well known as Long Island's Hamptons. In communities where artists and writers, fisherman and farmers coexist with the more well known moguls and celebrities, houses range from modest cottages to timeless shingled houses to modernist mansions. In Out East, author Jennifer Ash Rudick, with photographs by Tria Giovan, has captured more than thirty of the area's most distinctive houses and gardens." (Quintessence)"The pages of Out East showcase both interiors and exteriors of homes with distinct personalities and eclectic collections of art. The featured gardens are Edens of serene reflecting pools, trellises crawling with roses, and shady places to sit and daydream." (Modern Luxury Beach)"I don't know about you, but I'm loving what I see Out East. Enjoy!" (Mark D. Sikes)"Southampton resident Jennifer Ash Rudick takes us through more than 30 idyllic Hamptons residences." (Architectural Digest)"Enjoy a seldom-seen tour of the Hamptons from white-paneled living rooms, cozy cottage kitchens, enchanting gardens and elegantly shaded porches overlooking the Atlantic Ocean in Jennifer Ash Rudick's book, Out East: Houses and Gardens of the Hamptons. . . . Readers are sure to enjoy the eclectic mix of old and new, modern and colonial, contemporary and exotic." (Fort Worth Star-Telegram)

Jennifer Ash Rudick is the author of Palm Beach Chic, a contributing editor to Veranda, and a former editor at Town & Country and W. She lives in Southampton and New York City. Tria Giovan is a photographer specializing in interiors and still lifes. Her work has appeared in books and in Coastal Living, Esquire, House Beautiful, Travel & Leisure, and Veranda. She lives in Sag Harbor and New York City.

This was a little disappointing for me. There is a mix of styles in the book, not all what most people stereotypically expect of the Hamptons. I guess it's successful in showcasing there is more to the area than what is typically known. Unfortunately for my personal taste I found it rather dull and even had a couple of 'eek!' moments.

I absolutely loved perusing and reading through this new book! As a former New Yorker and having grown up going to a Southampton "cottage" I was intrigued to purchase the latest picturesque treasure, by the talented Ms. Rudick. - I very much enjoyed her other book Palm Beach Chic and for those of you who may not know - her talents also delve into the world of film - having taken the documentary world by storm with her production of "Iris." Jennifer's gift of educating her readers (in this case me) is a welcome respite to what we think we already know about the Hamptons. There is so much more to learn indeed, as this lovely coffee table book - an ornament in its self, is a must have! I so enjoyed learning historical facts that I never even knew existed and seeing a few homes of people I have encountered (or known) in my past whom are discreet, elegant and have a discerning taste. The work of photographer, Tria Giovan is marvelous... I would highly recommend this as a hostess present or to anyone, like myself, who has not visited for ages and who wishes to learn about a timeless location, well before the current day Instagram personalities and paparazzi took over what has always been a charming and enchanting place....Brava!

Good looking take, with variety

Please read wonderful reviews in Architectural Digest and Veranda Magazine, Vogue Magazine and other regional and national newspapers. Thank you!

This book seemed very very dated... there are so many books and magazines on the hamptons that are beautiful, this book fell far behind and doesn't represent the beauty in the hamptons houses and gardens today.

Disappointing
