Synopsis

In the world of cloth dolls Mary Tressler is considered one of the best. In the first book in the Basic Doll Making 101 series we explore the reasons why one should make dolls. This is not an instructional manual, but a collection of topics related to why we make dolls. How to find your muse, your niche, and even how to look at items in your world in an entirely different way. This guide is to inspire new doll makers and help wake up the creativity muse for the more experienced designers. Even if you are not interested in making dolls, the wisdom in this book will help any type of artist awaken the muse within.

Customer Reviews

There are many spelling errors but is a fairly inspirational short book. The book is directed at people who enjoy doll making.
