Customer Reviews

This little book has ALL I need to know about Florence and Tuscany! Everything from sites, to diagrams of streets to hotels and restaurants! It's like my little travel bible!

It is very good, however, it shows the top 10, many wonderful sights are missing. Best used with other references.

Super easy quick reference to top sites in Florence.

The item received is what I wanted.

Pathetic guidebook! So while it said "Top 10" and it does not have anything in depth - or any information about the sites and only limited hours, which was a pain, it also did not have correct information. Our plans in Pisa changed, so we looked at the guidebook. There was supposed to be a naval history museum . But after walking to where it was shown on the map, a google search showed that it was not there YET (and probably was not when the book was published). So we wandered around. We went to a site which was supposed to be interesting, but without any real information in the guide book, we could not really tell what the significance was. And while museum hours are listed, it would be nice if they highlighted how many museums in Italy are CLOSED on Monday. Worth a mention at least.
