Customer Reviews

"...it must be said at once, and with considerable respect, that this is by far the best one-volume history of the empire so far written."--Times Literary Supplement
"Professor Lloyd writes easily and informatively. His bibliographical essay guides the reader expertly through the maze of recent and not so recent writings on the subject. His excellent book will appeal both to those who are relatively unfamiliar with the imperial story and those who are looking for a fresh understanding of the British Empire in a post-imperial age."--History
"The style is refreshing and vigorous, as befits the subject, but never parts company from a consistently sober judgement on men and events."--International Affairs
