Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed this book. I'm fresh from divorce (2yrs) and totally over the dating scene but this was inspirational.

This book right here is the truth! Real feelings that not only that the Author feels but that we all feel. I loved the poems of life. I visually played out everything I heard as though he was right here with his spoken word talking to me. I encourage you to read this book, couldn't put it down 1st day and almost done * which says alot in itself for me that is  and can't wait to start the other two..

This book was exactly what I needed to hear. There is something to be said about the disappointments in relationships that we just don't see coming. Why? Because we aren't prepared for them and lose sight of ourselves while encompassed in what we think is love and acceptance in such situations. Take heed my sisters out there: this book will bring your valid doubts to light.

The book itself seems good but i can barely read it because pages are falling out left and right

I chose this rating because he is so authentic and real in every poem. He is telling women that he sees their worth and they deserve much better than what they are getting out of men. He's not saying that all guys are dirt bags but he's ultimately telling women that they don't have to settle. He's telling men that they need to get their act together.

I follow Derrick Jaxn on Facebook and saw a few passages from his book and had to get it. I thought it was going to be more of a story but it's mostly poems which is fine. Good reading material so far

The book was nice. He hit a lot of points, wr as women deal with in the world of dating, love, romance, heart break, and lust. He was genuine his approach and explanations. Well thought out. I did not like the "run ons." But hey 4 stars because it's real. It's nice to see that there is one good man left ready to love.

The text of the book is great, however the quality of the book is cheap. As soon as I opened it, pages started falling out from the binding not being done properly I would guess. You flip the page a few times and the entire page comes out.
