Customer Reviews

This is great, the characters, the drawing, the story is really consistent. In a lot of yaoi it seems the mangaka seem to forget the plot and the characters personality once they get to the steamy parts. Takarai does a good job of giving the steamy parts and keeping everyone true to their character. Its what makes the reading so tantalizing!

Great bl manga I can't wait for the next one to come out.

The covers of these books are honestly to die for..very steamy. Loved this second volume really speeded up the yaoi. Was not expecting this to happen so suddenly if you haven't already bought this series you are missing out really great read so far.#fujoshibooks

This is a good book but it started to slow. I will still complete the series.

Nice

VERY HOT READ

I am really liking Ten Count so far, though I was a bit put off in Kurose's behavior in this one. I still like him, but he seemed rather pushy in this one. However, I am excited to see this series finally being printed in English, and I am eager to see their relationship continue to grow. The artwork is pretty, and the characters are well-developed (though again, Kurose surprised me a bit). I recommend this series to any yaoi fan. I was surprised when Shirotoni said the number ten on his list wasn't what I thought it was going to be (since this is a yaoi, after all), but now I am even more curious to find out what it is!

The story was interesting and engaging. A nice subtle touch of sexy mixed in makes it a good balance. The Kindle version was great to have, especially since it even flips through like a manga.
