Customer Reviews

I am a cookie lover and I see nothing wrong with noshing on a sweet cookie year-round. Christmas cookies will always remain special to my heart, but after purchasing the Christmas Cookie Jar cookbook published by Gooseberry Patch, I can enjoy their Christmas cookie recipes whenever I want. Their cookbook features recipes that range from bars to drop cookies and a bit of everything in-between. Some of the recipes you will find in their cookbook include: Choccolotta Pizza, Zesty Lemon Cut-Outs, Brown Sugar Shortbread Cookies, Turtle Pecan Bars, Butterscotch Cheesecake Bars, Sharon's Gumdrops, Chocolate Thumbprints, Coconut Yule Logs, Fay's Candy Strawberries, Holiday Fruit Cookies, Connie's Orange Cookies, Eggnog Cookies, Coffee Eggnog (Not a cookie but a beverage to enjoy with your cookies). You will find delightful country-style graphics sprinkled throughout their cookbook. There is an interactive table of contents making navigation easy. Recommend. Penmouse

Love every one of my Gooseberry Patch Cookbooks. I have over 50 titles.

This cookie recipe book has some great recipes in it!! I have tried several of them and they all turned out great!! I liked it so much I bought several copies and gave them away as Christmas gifts!! They were a big hit!!

A great collection of cookie recipes from Gooseberry Patch. again, you could use these cookie recipes year round, and not just at Christmas time, but they would certainly be welcome at any Christmas table.

Most of the time these Gooseberry books are cute but I do not find them very underlining their recipes. This book is quite the exception. Filled with lots of recipes, tips on gift giving, decorating, and clever ideas for making gifts from cookies, this book is a gem and a keeper. Highly recommended.

I made both the Egg Nog and Orange cookies. They were such a big hit that I had to make a second batch of each to have enough to take to work for celebration. In the second batch I used less flour and cookies came out softer and lighter.

For a couple of months I was on a Gooseberry Patch kick buying several at a time. I was excited to receive this particular one because I love to make Christmas goodies. Unfortunately, I didn't recognize hardly any of these cookies. Maybe if there were pictures I would be able to recognize them because they may have a different name than what I grew up with. I did try the Eggnog cookies since I had some around the house that was on the borderline of being old in my opinion. They were okay. They tasted like a tea cake to me though. Nothing that made me want to take them to another gathering.
