Customer Reviews

Just a brief out line of the major sights, needs more depth. This book is lightweight and one could get the same info for free

This book was great-- it pointed out some of the best spots to visit when in Capetown and also told you what spots can be visited while visiting another spot. It included everything from relaxing with some wine, to hiking to the beach and shopping.

Sufficient information transpired through the book, a worth buy.

I loved reading this and planning my visits! Only wish I had more time!! You need a week just for Cape town let alone the areas around the Western Cape. But now when I return I will know!!!

Having just been in Cape Town I found much more good information re what to do and where to go in the local press and the tourist board site

Short but clear descriptions of local attractions and day trip sights
Good area maps and a few photos
Recommended for quick overview

I read it to complement all the other books I bought about South Africa, and I think it was very useful.

Basic info, but a good place to start. Well written and easy to understand. Check rates and hours as these may have changed.
