Just "Soul Introduction" and "The Chicken" were worth the price. Accurate tab notation although Jaco would play songs several different ways. Wish it was spiral bound so it would lay flat but I've gotten to rely on an exacto knife, three hole punch and a 3 ring binder for books like these.

Improvise, adapt and overcome.

Essential book for learning or teaching Jaco's best tunes, notation is great, and instructional tabs are helpful as well

Great book with some detailed (and accurate) charts for Jaco's tunes. Solo and with WR

I mean its 4.5 - 5 stars ... for what it is, as a songbook, the notation is really clear, it has a good number of songs, and as far as I know its accurate. I haven't really dived too far into it though yet because it's hard. I am still a learning musician, I would consider my skill level intermediate, but I am a huge fan of his work and am learning A LOT from this book.

Great stuff from the master, only thing is, zooming in on the entire page on the desktop app(kindle), doesn't really work!

This book will give you material of study for a very long time. I've had it for about 3 weeks and I'm constantly digging into it, it has helped me (beginner-intermediate bass player) improve my timing and technique.

Great musical challenge for all bassist. So good to have Jaco's music written out for us to study

The tabs themselves are very good but the book is barely legible on a Kindle device or on Kindle Cloud Reader.
