Kayaks To Hell

Synopsis

At last, a book that accurately depicts the mono-mania, elusive machismo, and marathon-dance mentality of whitewater paddling. In a unique blend of satire and cartoon art, William Nealy (author of best selling Whitewater Home Companion) opens up with both barrels on the sport and people which turns picturesque streams into jungle gyms.

Great book

Get it.Now.

I've only had..and enjoyed this book for over 10 years, and since I'm not out paddling, thought it was time to write the first review for it.William Nealy shares his politically incorrect and very humorous, sociocultural paddling wit and commentary in comic sketch form. It includes tips on "how to pick up a river person", River Accessories from S&M river Supplies (featuring Wanda the inflatable boat bch), an examination for a whitewater doctorate from S&M University of Whitewater Sciences, and many other outrageous and creative little paddling comic strip sketches and tales."Kayaks to Hell" is a satirical perspective on the whitewater paddling psyche and a "must have" for all dry-bags.
