Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED Katie Bontrager was given up for adoption as an infant, she spent her early years being neglected and abused. Those days are long past and she found a home in the Amish community with Joseph and Miriam Bontrager. Katie still harbors anger and resentment towards her birth parents. She doesn't know the circumstances they were faced with, but she doesn't really care. Aaron Esh is her best friend. He secretly has a heart full of love for Katie, but he has kept quiet because he senses she's not ready to give her heart away. When her birth mother suddenly reappears in her life, Katie is forced to make a decision that could have life or death consequences for another member of her family she hasn't even met, she has to come to terms with her feelings. As she grows and allows Gott to help guide her, she's also faced with a jealous friend and potential Englisch suitor. Will Katie allow Gott to help her heart heal, or will she remain angry and allow bitterness to win? When faced with a romance she never saw coming, will she accept it, or throw it away? Will Katie ever be able to feel complete during her lifetime?

Customer Reviews

When Katie was born, she was given up to a New York orphanage and then when she was seven, she was placed in foster care. The foster parents had other children and often locked them up for days with no food or water. They didn't go to school, were not allowed to play outside and had no toys to play with. One day Katie managed to escape and that evening she was found by a nice Amish couple. Upon hearing her story, they took her home with them and she was raised Amish along with their other children. This was a very good story and quick to read. Dealing with a rough childhood, Katie finds love and acceptance in the Amish community. When she becomes an adult, she meets her birth mother and finds out she has a twin. A twin who needs a bone marrow transplant because of leukemia. Katie does what all Amish do, she prayed about what to do and followed God's leading.

Very good reading and showing how God impacts our lives. I have enjoyed Hannah's books they are free of bad language and sexual issues. Healing hearts is her speciality. Thanks!

Okay, but I have read better. Finding oneself takes many different routes. Katie found love in two different worlds and chose the one that would make life blessed and favored.

Holly had a range of luck in her life. Thanks to her family and her husband for all the support and patience which she needed. It's a good story but I hope it continues now that she has a sister in her life. Hope things will be able to have a better and full filling life.

This was a Sunday afternoon read...nice, sweet and short. At least it wasn't left open ended. You will know the ending.

Gift and she liked it.
