Uganda Handbook, 2nd (Footprint - Handbooks)

Synopsis

Land-locked in the heart of the African continent, Uganda has a fantastic climate, an ever-changing landscape and people who are honest, polite and genuinely pleased to help. Footprint's Uganda Handbook will guide you from the peaks of the Mountains of the Moon, through the Impenetrable Forest to the Source of the Nile, taking in adrenalin-pumping thrills of tracking gorillas and rafting some of the best white water rides in the world. Includes selected itineraries offering advice on how to get the best out of your trip whether you're travelling for a week or a month. Extensive thoroughly researched information to help you plan your trip as well as advise you on the ground. Tips on white-water rafting, gorilla and chimp tracking. The heart of the guide is broken in to the key regions of Uganda; Kampala & Entebbe, Jinja Mount Elgon and the east, Kidepo Murchison and the north, Fort Portal, QENP and the west, Sseses, Bwindi, the south and southwest - and gives you comprehensive information on each of these regions. Each regional section has an overview map, local information on how to get around with transport and street maps where relevant, a short history of the region, thorough advice on what to see and do and a directory of key local information on banks, embassies, internet cafes and medical services. 32-page full-colour section dedicated to Uganda's wildlife offering advice and information on what to see and where to see it. Also includes a full-colour mini atlas to help you get your bearings. From the bustling city of Kampala to the heavily forested waterfalls of the tropical Ssesse Islands, Footprint's fully updated 2nd edition will help you navigate this vibrant destination.

Expert authors Mike Hodd and Angela Roche know Uganda inside out; they have travelled extensively throughout the country researching this new edition. Comprehensive coverage of all the country's attractions, from gorilla trekking to the Murchison Falls. Inspirational trip-planning with itineraries, maps and a special wildlife feature in full colour. In-depth background section to help you understand the region's history, culture, people and politics.

Michael Hodd is an economist who studied at Cambridge, the London School of Economics and Princeton. He has worked for the Canadian Government, La Trobe University in Melbourne, Australia, and the School of Oriental and African Studies at the University of London, and he is now at the University of Westminster in London. He is married to Angela Roche. He has visited Africa more than 50 times, and he hopes the Handbook conveys some of the enthusiasm he feels for the continent. Angela Roche spent her early childhood in Malaysia. Michael noted in the acknowledgements of the 1995 edition of the East African Handbook that "Angela, my wife, and my son, Jack, of course gave absolutely no help, encouragement or support whatsoever, and derided the entire project from start to finish." Michael's persistence has paid off as Angela developed an interest in Uganda. It has to be said though that maybe this is because she is unfortunate enough to be married to someone who edits East Africa travel books, but superman that he is, cannot handle everything he's got on his plate alone.
