Authors: Marian Jones is an experienced author, teacher and examiner of German and currently teaches at Strode College. Helen Kent is an experienced author, teacher and examiner. Birgit Linton is a Tutor in German at the School of English and Languages of the University of Surrey, where she has taught on a variety of programmes since 1991. Series editor: Mike Thacker is a former Director of the Language Centre at the University of Surrey. He is the author of several textbooks for the teaching of Spanish and has many years of experience as a senior examiner at GCSE and A-level.

This book has no answers. The layout is somewhat busy. We like the exam corner at the end of each chapter but all the listening exercises are impossible and useless as the audio CD is not provided with this book! The accompanying Grammar workbook is great and has answers.
