Easy sight reading!

I was looking for Jewish music that is fun and easy to play. My piano teacher recommended this book. One thing that I like about the music was that, though easy play, the songs do not sound like elementary piano music. I enjoyed the commentary explaining the background of each piece.

It was everything I had hoped for! As a non-Hebrew and Protestant, I quickly got some suggestions from my Jewish friends and started trying out these tunes. One or two I recognized right away, the rest will take some work. I began life as a musician in church then band, all the way through ten years in the Air Force, with some choral experience along the way. Lately, I've learned ukulele, and discovered a lot of fun when I have the chords with the score. I've also referred this little anthology to some of my friends. Of the 22 songs, I'm sure there will be some you like. Well worth the price.

Enjoy, share, make a joyful noise.

I love this book, great versions and arrangements of these popular Hebrew songs - easy to read and play along. Perfect for those special occasions.

I Highly Recommend this book.

I liked the different types of songs and how they are organized, as well as the background of each song and how the hebrew is translated into english. Also that they were easy to play on the piano.

I am a new piano student, and senior citizen. This is perfect for the level I am at right now.
